INAUGURATION OF THE NEW GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY.
Charles S. Morehead, the newly elected American Gov. onor of Kentucky, was insugurated at Frankfort on the 4th inst. The Govenor, in his inaugural address, puthis determination to sustain the constitution, and uphold the Union in the following language:—In her federal rethe Union in the following language:—In her federal relations Kentucky has never ceased to look to the Union of the States, as the best and only security for their peace and happiness. She requires all her officers to take an each to support the constitution of the United States. She feels that the only certain guaranty of liberty is a faithful and honest support of that sacred instrument in all its limitations as well as its grant of powers. While she cautiously refrains from any invasion of the rights of others, she will be steadfist and firm in the maintainance of her own—she cherishes toward all the States the high-set fraiternal regard not merely on account of a common brotherhoes of union, but from the additional bonds of a common sympathy and common interest. In those land common sympathy and common interest. In those land common scoulites of opinion, where parties have been arrayed by a sectional line, she has always acted in a spirit of concilitation and caim forbearance. We occupy the same great valley in common with States differing from us as to domestic institutions santified and protected by organic law—seperated only by that beautiful stream which bears upon its bosom the commerce of all; and as waters from each side unite and mingle to swell its majestic tide, so our suppathies and feelings ought to unite and mingle in common devotion to our whole country, and to the permitty of that bond of union which makes us one people, and upon the continuance of which depends all the blessings of liberty. I cannot, however, but deeply lament and deplore that wild and neckless spirit of fanaticism which is madely insisting upon a common, government for all the States assuming an attitude of hostility to the property of a part. No one can fail to see the dreadful consequences to which this must lead if blindly presisted in. The people of Kentucky, without distruction of party, are loyal and true to the Union. Belleving that anarchy and despotion would be the inevitable consequence of a dissolution is pees ev lations Kentucky has never ceased to look to the Union

HAMILTON COUNTY (CINCINNATI) DEMOCRATIC COUN

TY CONVENTION.

The Percocratic Nominating Convention of Hamilton county, Ohio, met on the 12th inst., and according to the reports in the Circinnati papers, had rather a funny time. The following is reported as the closing scenes of the convention.

Judge Wm. I. Spooner being nominated for representa-tive and loudly called for, came forward—If nominated his services should be given to the democratic party, and nothing clee, as he was devoted to democratic princi-A Vocce—Did you oppose part of the ticket two years

Mr. SPONDER—Where is the man that has not botted institutial candidates?

A VOCT—Here is one.

Br. Black—Are you the man who, as Judge, put poor farmers in juil for selling a petty peck or two of apples?

Mr. SPONDER—I am prepared to answer for every act I did. In the case to which you refer, but carried out the law since repealed, and for which the huckster ordinance is substituted. In whatever situation I may be placed. I will go for the strict enforcement of the law as I is.

it is.

Dr. Black—You would fine a poor farmer $100 and send him to jail to consort with the lowest thieves for selling a barrel of apples?

Cries of "get down," "pass him down," "turn him out," "we have heard enough," and laughter.

Mr. SPOONER—I am too old to be put down by laughter.

Mr. SPOONES—I am too old to be put down by laughter.

Mr. SPOONES—As long as charges are made and questions put, I claim a right to answer.

Just at this moment Mr. Spooner was knocked down by Phil. Weaver, who, with others, dragged him outside the convention. There were strong symptoms of a general row. A fight occurred in the rear and another on the north side of the meeting. Joe Blundell called some-hods a liar; was told he wou d be met again; retracted, and made friends. Some declared Spooner should have been heard, others swore he ought not. The utmest confusion prevailed. Ouths somerous and rapid were heard on all sides. Mr. Mysm. - I move the Convention take a recess until to morrow morning.

ponsibility.

If undreds were talking, gesticulating and swearing, and the reasker did not hear.

Another fight occurred in the rear. The secretaries commenced calling the ballot for nominations for the Legislature, and this restored some degree of order. Many left the ground.

MISCELLANEOUS. The Americans of Wayne, N. Y., will hold a mas meeting at Newark on the 27th of September, which will be addressed by Hon. J. T. Headley, and Samuel H. Ham-

Mr. E. M. Wright, the present Secretary of State of Massachusetts, declines being again a candidate "for any office in the gift of the people."

The Know Nothings will hold a mass county convention in Rochester on the 18th inst. Hon. Daniel Uliman will address the meeting.

The Burlington Tragedy. TO THE EDITOR OF THE N. Y. HERALD.

DEAR Sir-Your independent course in matters of pub-He interest is so well sustained in the late articles in the HERALD on the Burlington massacre, that I am led to send a few lines that may aid you to bring some of the gory banditti of the State, of Camden and Amboy, to public Suits need not necessarily be brought in New Jersey.

The tickets were bought (or most of them were) in Philaceiphia, and thus the contract being entered into here, aults may be brought here. It may confidently be refied upon that justice will not be sought in vain before Philadelphia junes.

The public should be put on their guard against the at-tempt to bring Dr. Hannigan into the issue. What have pastengers on the railroad to do with Jersey doctors? His position is one exclusively with the company. Will they prosecute him? Suppose one of the cows had been struck, would its owner have been paraded as the scape-struck, would its owner have been para-led as the scape-grace?

Our papers are not disposed to publish everything that tells against the monopoly, or there would have appeared a statement to the effect that Mr. James J. Barcuay, an uncle, and Mr. Beylard, a friend, of Mr. Clement M. Barclay, went, the night of the accident, to Burlington by an express. As they neared the Rancocus, by the faint light of ite moon, the draw was perceived to be open, and the engine was checked within a few feet of it. The watchman was asleep in bed.

In view of the desperate efforts to make the rate at which the train was moving appear very slew, it may be well to know that Mrs. Holsman says the last words of her daughter were in expressing her appreciation of the rapidity with which the train was backing. Poor George R. Ingersoil, who was sitting on a reversel seat, facing hem, replied, "Yes, it was abominable, and it was their usual custom."

them, replied. 'Yes, it was abominable, and it was their usual custom.'

There is to be a public meeting held here, and it would be well to take into consideration a means that New York and Pennylvania possess by which this most iniquitous monopoly on earth may be entirely crushed. It is known that a tax is paid to the State by cach passenger, but it is not generally known that inhabitants of New Jersey are exempted. Any resident there can buy a ticket for one dollar and eighty cents. Now, all the people of New York and Philadelphia need do is to obtain acts levying a contribution, say of fifty cents, on each passenger the Camden and Amboy Company takes from or brings to their shores. Of course it will be said that it would be unconstitutional, and all that sort of fudge. Make it of sufficient pecuniary importance, and it will be submitted to, and collected; for we have the successful example of New Jersey to show us that there is absolutely no limit to the endurance of our corporation-risiden people. We thus have the means to force the people of New Jersey to show us that there is absolutely no limit to ours. I put it in this shape, for the rate of fare cannot be increased, while our exaction can be enforced. This even could scarcely be called even-handed ustice, for while we would only plunder the Jerseymen, they plunder and murder us. Most truly yours.

The LUCILLA MUTINEERS.—U. S. COMMISSION

The Lucilla Mutineers.—U. S. Commission for Soynes.—Before Commissioner C. F. Hearlitt.—Chas. Lewis, Charles Armstead alias Abure Emerson, and Robert Sands, were charged with mutiny on board the bark landling of Salem, bound to Sumatra, on the 12th of June last. The allegation is that the defendants compired to kill all the officers, and such of the crew as would not join them, in order to share the money on board the bark between them, which would amount to $6,000 a piece. The decedants were armed with double barkeled pistols and divis. The first plan, to kill the officers and run the vessel on the Bermada Fanks or an island uninipabited, failled in consequence of one of the conspirators failing to shoot the captain when became on deck. They then devised a second scheme, by which the vessel was to be seized and the officers murdired, when they reached Sumatra. The defendants were to induce the Malays to join them in the enterprise. The second plan failed in consequence of a disclosure by one of the crew. His affidavit was taken in Rio Janeiro, and was read before the Commissioner. The Commissioner held the defendants in $1,000 for a further hearing, and they were committed in default of bail, until the arrived from Rio Janeiro of the witnesses against them. The defendants were taken into custody by Deputy Marshal Crossin, who found them on board the brig Scotia, of Baltimore, which arrived at Philadelphia yesterday, they having been sent here in gone by the Consul.—Philadelphia Gozetie, Spp. 14.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MONEY MARKET.

SATURDAY, Sept. 15-6 P. M. There was considerable buoyancy in the stock market this morning, and there were pretty active sales. Erie sold to the extent of about nine thousand shares, and closed steady at the opening price. Read' ing advanced, and was very firm at the close. The most extraordinary rise of all was in Cleveland and Toledo. The movement in Erie surpasses anything we have known for many months. It is probably as out and out a fancy as there is on the list, and the advance in prices is upon as poor a basis as at any time within its history. The two principal cards today were Erie, and Cleveland and Toledo-both of the same class, and are managed in the same way, and will at about the same time collapse again. The more the bubble is inflated the more serious the explosion. At the first board to-day Illinois Central bonds advanced & per cent: New York Central 7's 4: Pennsylvania Coal, 4; Reading Railroad, 4; Michigan Southern 3: Illinois Central Railroad, 4: Cleveland and Toledo, 14: Chicago and Rock Island, Galera and Chicago declined h per cent All the indications are infavor of a strong upward movement in Chicago and Rock Island. This stock has been quietly absorbed lately by some of our shrewdest ca italists, and the returns for the six months ending October 1st, when published, will create a demand for the stock such as has not been realized during the company's existence. When such a stock is selling below par, it is a wonder to us that Cleveland and Toledo, Cleveland and Pittsburg and others of the same sort should call for more than fifty cents on the dollar. The Chicago and Rock Island shows greater net earnings in six months, on five millions of capital, than the Cleveland and Toledo, in twelve months, on seven millions of capital.

At the second board, Erie advanced | per cent; Cumberland Coal, 4; Hudson Railroad, 4; Michigan Southern, 1: Michigan Central, 4. Cleveland and Toledo declined & per cent. The way this stock shroots about, up one per cent one day and down two the next, is enough, we should think, to satisfy small holders that the market value is sustained entirely by speculators.

The North Carolina Copper Company has given notice that previous to payment of any dividend out of its earnings, the assessment levied June 27, 1855, will be returned to those by whom it was paid or their assigns. The exports of specie from this port this week amounted to only $13,000. The banks will probably show on Monday a handsome increase in their specie department.

The following is the plan adopted by the New York country banks for their clearing house in this city:-

York country banks for their clearing house in this city:—

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

The several incorporated banks, banking associations, and private bankers of the State of New York, who shall execute this instrument in the manner hereinafter mentioned, hereby associate together for the purpose of establishing in the city of New York, a common agency for the redemption of their circulating notes, and also the circulating notes of other incorporated banks, banking associations and individual bankers, pursuant to the provisions of the Sih section of the act of the Legislature of the state of New York, entitled "An act relating to the redemption of bank notes," passed May 4, 1840, under he following rules and regulations:—

1. The association shall be known as "The New York Country Bank Exchange."

2. The agency shall receive all the circulating notes of country banks in good credit which shall be sent to it by an associate, at the legal discount of one-quarter of one per cent. The circulating notes of each member of the association, which shall be forwarded to the agency, or otherwise releemed by it, shall be duly assorted and returned to the bank issuing the same, at a discount of one-fifth of one per cent. Exchanges shall be unde and the balances settled and paid daily. The balances due from debtor banks, shall be paid by them, through the bank in the city of New York, with which they shall respectively keep their account, on the draft or requisition of the manager of the agency, and the balances due to the creditor banks shall in like manner be paid by the manager to their credit respectively, in such bank in said city as they shall designate.

3. The Association shall be in no way responsible for the exchanges, nor for the balances resulting therefrom, except so far as such balances shall have actually been paid into the hands of the manager; it shall be a charge only upon the specificity hanks of the manager.

4. Each member of the Association shall be limited to the distribution by the manager to the cre on becoming a member of the association, shall deposit with the manager the sum of two thousand dollars, and in case its circulation received from the Bank Repartment, or which it shall be authorized to issue, shall exceed one hundred thousand dollars, then such deposit shall be equal to two per cent upon such circulation, which sum shall remain on deposit with the Association unimpaired, so long as the bank or banker depositing the same shall continue a member thereof, and shall be returned on withdrawing therefron, subject, however, to any indebtedness of such bank or banker to the Association, and to its liability for its proportion of the losses or expenses thereof.

6. In case the expenses of the Association shall exceed its moome from its business, such expenses shall be apportioned by the Executive Committee, and paid by the associates quarterly, in proportion to the amount of redemptions made by them respectively.

7. For h bank belonging to the association may be represented at all meetings, by one or more of its principal officers, but shall be entitled to but one vote.

8. A meeting of the Association shall be held at the office of the Association, on the second Wednesday of May in each year, at which meeting a president shall be elected by ballot. Special meetings may be called by the exective committee, at their discretion, and shall be called by them on the written request of any five of the association. Stepresentatives from fifteen banks shall at all limes constitute a quorum.

9. At every annual meeting a standing committee of five bank officers shall be elected by ballot, as an executive committee, whose duty it shall be to act as a board of the directors of the Association, to provide whatever may be necessary for the use of the agency: to appoint and emove all officers, clerks or other persons employed, executive to management of the business, in all cases not herein provided for, and generally to direct the affairs of the agency.

10. The meanager, to fix their salaries, apportion and raw f and each cierk shall give like security in the sum of ten thousand dollars.

11. The manager, under the direction of the executive committee, shall have charge of all business at the agency, so far as relates to the manner in which it shall be conducted, and all the clerks shall be under his direction. He shall have power to suspend any clerk or other person employed, for cause, and shall report such suspension, and the reason of it, to the executive committee. He shall act as secretary at all meetings of the Association and of the executive committee.

12. The Faccutive Committee shall have power to suspend the manager, whenever in their opinion the interests of the Association shall require it. Upon such suspension being made, the committee shall immediately call a meeting of the Association, and report the cause of such suspension, when final action shall be taken by the Association.

12. In case any associate shall neglect or refuse to pro-suspension, when final action shall be taken by the Asociation.

13, in case any associate shall neglect or refuse to provide for the payment of any balance against such associate arising from the exchanges, the manager may thereupon in his discretion return the circulating notes of the cautiling bank constituting such balance, to the bank or banks from which the same were received, and in the same proportion as sent by them, first causing each parcel of said notes so returned to be duly protested. The bank so in default shall thereupon be suspended from the Association by the I secutive Committee, (or in their absence by the manager,) until the final determination of the Association in the matter at a meeting to be called as soon as practicable thereafter.

14. The Executive Committee shall designate a bank or banks in the city of New York, in which all drafts drawn or balances shall be deposited and the funds of the Association kept.

15. New members may be admitted into the Association at any time, with the assent of the Executive Committee, such new members paying an admission fee, to be fixed by the Executive Committee, making the deposit herein before mentioned, and signifying their assent to these articles, in the same manner as the original members.

16. For cause deemed sufficient by the Association at poit herein before mentioned, and signifying their assent to these articles, in the same manner as the original members.

16. For cause decemed sufficient by the Association at any meeting thereof, any bank may be expelled from the association, provided a majority of the whole number of associated banks shall vote in favor thereof.

17. Any member of the Association may withdraw therefrom at any annual meeting, on glying thirty days previous notice of its intention to withdraw to the Executive Committee—first paying its due proportion of all expenses, liabilities, and losses, if any.

18. For the purpose of organization, and until the first annual meeting shall be held, George W. Cayler, of Polmera, in the county of Wayne, shall be the manager of the Association at an annual salary of five thoursand dollars and Ceorge H. Mumford, of Rochester, George W.

19th, of Buffale, Edward B. Judson, and Hamilton White, of Syracuse. Josiah N. Starin, of Auburn; Solon D. Hungerlord, of Adams, and William E. Osborne, of Bingham tu, a shall constitute the Executive Committee.

19. These articles shall be submitted to the several banks and individual bankers of the State whose notes are not redeemed at par in the cities of New York. Alhany or Troy for their approval and adoption. When approved by the Boards of Directors of the incorporated banks or banking associations, or by individual bankers, such approval shall be signified by the signatures thereto, of the Prevident Cashier, or inancial officer of the bank or institution adopting the same. When fifty banks inall have adopted these articles, the agency may be put in operation.

in any expected these articles may be made at any meeting of the Association, by a vote of two-thirds of all the members present, being not less than a majority of all the members belonging to the Association.
